

I feel that cell phones should not be allowed on flights. The "air rage" incidents are increasing enough, without this irritation be added in the mix. There is no way for someone on a plane to get away from a loud cell phone conversation. Thank you.